After practicing in the San Francisco Bay Area for approximately 10 years, Stefanie returned to Nevada and joined the firm in 2003. Since then, she has dedicated the bulk of her practice to transactional law, representing financial institutions, mortgage brokers and bankers as well as a variety of business entities. Stefanie also assists the state housing agency with a variety of low income housing matters and transactions. Stefanie enjoys working with clients to accomplish their goals and objectives in a wide variety of transactions.

Stefanie is a fourth generation Nevadan. Outside of work she enjoys a variety of outside interests including hiking, reading, fitness and occasional mountain biking. However her true passion is the classical discipline of dressage which she pursues with her 2 horses.
